

DADA

an exhibition
to discover art

illustrations from the DADA collective

Themes : art, media

Founded in 1991, DADA is the first art magazine for the whole family, children and parents. From antiquity to contemporary art, it explores all era. One of its characteristics? Each section opens with drawings of a guest illustrator for the occasion: they appropriates the subject of the issue and gives their vision ... in pictures! All the history of art through the eyes of today's illustrators gathered here.
